

Seattle Jewish Theater Company

presents

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER

Written and Directed by Art Feinglass

In 1965 Black and Jewish civil rights workers in Mississippi faced arrest, beatings, bombings and worse together – until everything changed.

Based on the playwright's personal experience.

LANGSTON HUGHES PERFORMING ARTS INSTITUTE

104 17th Ave. S., Seattle Saturday & Sunday, 2:00 p.m. October 21 & 22

Performances will be followed by a conversation with the audience. Tickets $8 & $12 at Eventbrite

Awarded 2023
Arts Project Grant

CULTURE

OFFICE OF ARTS & CULTURE
SEATTLE

